JIM DEARMAN
CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

Jim Dearman was born in Smithville, Tennessee. He currently preaches for the White Oak congregation in Chattanooga, Tennessee and hosts White Oak's nationally televised "Good News Today" program, aired every Sunday on both DirecTV and Dish Network. A graduate of the University of Tennessee with a degree in communications, Dearman also attended the Memphis School of Preaching and earned his Master's from Alabama Christian School of Religion. He has preached for over thirty years, serving as a located preacher in Alabama, Tennessee, and Texas. Jim is an experienced missionary and educator, having directed the Malaysia School of Preaching. Upon returning from the mission field, he taught at the Memphis School of Preaching. Jim and his wife, Janis, have three children.

GLENN COLLEY
HUNTSVILLE ALABAMA

Glenn Colley was born in Houston, Texas and is a third generation preacher. A Freed-Hardeman University graduate, Glenn has been preaching for more than 30 years. He and Cindy have been married for 30 years and have two children. Glenn holds as many gospel meetings each year as local work will allow and often conducts weekend seminars about the family and home with his wife Cindy. Glenn has done foreign mission work in Africa, South America, India, and Ukraine. He is seen on Gospel Broadcasting Network hosting Focus on Faith, Most of A Minute, and How to Start a Church. He serves on the Boards of Directors for Lads to Leaders and for Focus Press. He is a co-editor for THINK magazine. Glenn and Cindy are the authors of books such as You're Singing My Song, Your Mama Don't Dance, Headed To The Office, Crown of Creation, Women of Deliverance, Get Real (co-authored with Chuck Webster) and Loose Change. Glenn is currently the pulpit minister for the West Huntsville Church of Christ in Huntsville, Alabama where he also serves as an elder.
